HeartsApart.org is a 501(c)3 organization that provides a unique service for our military service members. We provide soon-to-be deployed service members with a professional photo shoot with their spouse and children to keep them connected while military families are apart. Photos are waterproof and printed on durable cards that fit in the uniform pocket closest to their heart. HeartsApart.org was a 2012 "Joining Forces Community Challenge" finalist and with your support we can continue to provide this service to more members of our Armed Forces in NC and across the country.
